

MASSACRE STORY NOT BELIEVED

Nothing To Confirm Bear Lake Tale.

COURIER ARRIVES AT BRAINERD WITH NEWS.

Says All the Men Not in Uniform Were Slain by the Red Men, But Has No Knowledge of a Second Little Big Horn Affair—Regulars Rushed to the Scene From Fort Snelling—Names of Victims.

Walker, Minn., 2:45 p. m.—[Special]—A dispatch boat arrived from Bear Island, bringing the advice that only Major Williamson and six privates and an Indian policeman were killed in yesterday's battle. Thirty Indians are dead. The troops are entrenched and can hold out as long as the ammunition lasts. The fight was resumed this morning and is still in progress. A number are reported to have been killed on each side today.

St. Paul, Oct. 6.—[Special]—A special dispatch from Brainerd, Minn., gives an account of the battle between the soldiers and the Indians. It says that a courier has returned from Walker, bringing the news that all the men not in uniform were killed by the Indians at Bear Island yesterday.

The massacre of soldiers is not confirmed and the story is believed to be unfounded.

A council of the agency Indians was held last night and it is believed to have resulted in a decision not to go on the war path.

Nothing has been heard from the three missing correspondents.

A complete list of the casualties has not yet been received, but it is known that the following were killed and wounded:

- The killed:
SIX INDIANS.
A TIMBER INSPECTOR.
SARVEY PRIVATE.
CORL PRIVATE.
The missing:
K. C. Beaton, correspondent.
H. L. Knappen, correspondent.
W. H. Brill, correspondent.
The wounded:
Indian Inspector Tinker.
Marshal Harris.
George Marks, employe.
Three companies of the Third United States Infantry left Fort Snelling for the scene of the trouble this morning. It is now believed that the Indians have escaped to the mainland.

Minneapolis, Oct. 6.—[Special]—A special from Walker, Minn., says that at eleven o'clock this morning the reports of Krag-Jorgenson rifles could be plainly heard on Bear Island, but the firing was some distance inland. It is therefore thought that the soldiers are pushing their way into the interior. This may explain why signals were not answered last night.

Brill, Beaton, and Knappen, the correspondents are now thought to be with the soldiers. Up to this time it was supposed they had been killed. The belief is growing that the annihilation story is without foundation. A dispatch to the Journal, however, says that part of the troops were massacred, but there are hopes that Bacon entrenched himself, and saved his command.

A special to the Times says that four soldiers were killed and nine wounded.

Followed the Indians?—St. Paul, Oct. 6.—[Special]—Reports from Walker as to the effect that no signs of life are visible at Bear Island, which is taken to mean that the troops have followed the Indians inland.

A general alarm has been sent to the settlers, notifying them that a general uprising of the Indians is feared. Arms and ammunition have been sent to Walker for the use of the citizens.

Firing is resumed.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 6.—[Special]—The firing was resumed over on the mainland soon after nine o'clock this morning. It is believed that the troops are now far inland. If this is the case, they are entrenched and can hold out unless their ammunition is exhausted in that event there can be only one result. The firing is not heavy.

A third expedition of fifteen men has just started for Sugar Point.

The troops have had nothing to eat since yesterday noon. The situation is desperate to a degree. An Indian just in from Bear Island says that ten soldiers were killed and a number were wounded. He says the Indians had the best of the fight. Other reports say that fifty Indians were killed.

St. Paul, Oct. 6.—[Special]—The army officials here have received no report confirming or denying the reported massacre of the troops at Bear Island. Five hundred men of the Fifteenth Minnesota regiment have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness for duty. Early reports of the trouble are probably much exaggerated, but the Associnted Press dispatches told the story as follows:

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 6.—Word was received here last night from Brainerd to the effect that the entire force of soldiers sent to Bear Lake island under command of Gen. Bacon has been wiped out of existence. There were 100 men in the force of regulars, most of them veterans of the battle of Santiago.

The fighting began early in the morning, when the troops under Gen. Bacon landed on Bear Island. While the tug Flora was after re-enforcements, Gen. Bacon, it is understood, took steps to entrench himself and hold his position until more men could arrive. It is believed that while engaged in the work of entrenching the Indians wiped out the gallant little band.

It is feared that the Indians will attack the settlers on and around the reservation. If a general uprising takes place, 3,000 fighting braves will be in the field.

The message to Brainerd came with a request to wire Washington for 5,000 troops. The local volunteer soldiers which have returned to Duluth on furlough are holding themselves in readiness for orders.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 6.—A hard fight with the Indians has occurred and the reports from the scene of the battle on the other side of Leech lake are somewhat conflicting, although all reports agree that the result has been considerable shedding of blood and some loss of life on both sides. No word from the front came for several hours, which fact is considered somewhat ominous. The most serious report is that the detachment of troops with Gen. Bacon was massacred, the general himself being said to be among the dead. Three newspaper correspondents—Brill of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, Beaton of the Minneapolis Tribune and Knappen of the Minneapolis Times—are known to have been in the fight, and one report is that they were killed, while another says they are now prisoners in the hands of the Indians.

A dispatch-boat just arrived announces that although it cruised up and down near the scene of the battle for two hours the crew was unable to see a man and fear that all soldiers and officers have fallen. One hundred armed citizens, including a detachment from Brainerd, are about to start for the scene.

A statement has been secured from United States Marshal O'Connor. He says that Gen. Bacon told him he thought it likely that they would have to remain several days. O'Connor thereupon said he would return here for tents and supplies. O'Connor says it was folly to go there with so small a force and thinks it will take at least 1,000 troops to restore peace.

The fight took place thirty miles north of Walker, Minn., on a point of wooded land jutting out into Leech lake, near Bear Island. The expedition under Gen. Bacon landed at 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and for three hours scoured the bush, finding no traces of the Indians in force.

The attack of the Indians came unexpectedly while the soldiers were preparing a midday meal. The details of the first attack, the fight and the repulse of the Indians have been received. The Indians, however, were not defeated. They apparently fell back into the bush. People at Walker heard the sounds of renewed fighting for several hours, and it was not until shortly before 5 o'clock that sounds of firing ceased.

The correspondents of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, the Minneapolis Tribune and the Minneapolis Times, it is feared, are killed, wounded or captive. They were seen in the thickest of the fight, closely pressed by the enemy. No direct word has been received from these correspondents or from any officer or soldier connected with the expedition.

Gen. Bacon has sent back no report of the fight or request for reinforcements.

At midnight an Indian, who reached Walker from Bear Island, said all the men not in uniform had been killed. He could not tell how many soldiers were dead.

It is these facts that lead to the fear that Gen. Bacon and his entire expedition have met with serious disaster.

The last man to leave was United States Marshal O'Connor, who started for Walker for tents and supplies. The battle opened while O'Connor was rowing in a skiff to his steam launch.

At midnight the Indians at the agency were in council. Every half hour a runner came from the battlefield. The Indians are divided between peace and war.

The war department has acted promptly and troops are already on the way. The Indian authorities have asked for 2,000 troops. They advise the war department a general uprising of all the Indians on the reservation near Leech lake is imminent.

The settlers have abandoned their homes and are fleeing for their lives.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 6.—It is not believed here that a general massacre of troops has taken place at Bear Island, although the situation is one of extreme gravity. A staff correspondent of the Globe wired: "Urge Fort Snelling authorities to send troops immediately."

BAPTISTS ARE BUSY AT THE LINE CITY

THE CONVENTION HAS GOTTEN DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Woman's Work in Missionary Societies—Papers Read by Rev. C. A. Hobbs, the Rev. S. A. Beman, Rev. W. W. Sleeper and Others—Rev. D. B. Cheney Explains Problem of City

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 6.—The state Baptist convention got down to business yesterday; the church in its various branches being considered. Certain needed reforms were discussed, the Rev. C. C. Willett, D. D., of Elkhorn leading. The Rev. C. A. Hobbs, of Delavan, gave the welcome to the new pastors, the Rev. S. A. Beman, of Neenah, responding in behalf of the thirty or forty new preachers in the field. The fraternal greeting of the churches of Beloit were given by the Rev. W. W. Sleeper, of the Second Congregational church. The Rev. Frank Kaiser, of Milwaukee, spoke of the German work; the Rev. C. P. Otis, Camp Douglas, of the Scandinavian work, and the Rev. O. A. Williams, of Minneapolis, spoke in behalf of mission work among nationalities. A prayer service was conducted by the Rev. J. Andrich, of Juda. The annual sermon was preached by the Rev. H. W. Reed, of La Crosse.

Rev. Mr. Kempton Speaks. In the afternoon, the Rev. George A. Cressy, of Tomah, led a devotional exercise, the Rev. J. B. Thomas, of Chicago, presenting the religious question as a national problem, the Rev. A. C. Kempton, of Janesville, spoke on the "Supreme Element in the Great Commission," and Rev. B. S. Walker, of Wauwatosa spoke on "Teaching and Training." The latter part of the afternoon was given to woman's work. Mrs. L. Smith, of Burlington giving her annual report for the Home Missionary society, Miss Minnie S. Mueller, of La Crosse, told of her work among Germans and Miss Jennette Goddard, of New York city, gave an address on "Proclaiming the Messiah to the Jews."

The Evening Exercises. At the meeting last night Miss Minnie Hastings, of Beaver Dam, led the praise service. The addresses were on the social and religious conditions of the rural districts as compared with the cities. The Rev. W. A. McKillop, of Waukesha, spoke on "The Country Springs, or the Fountain Head of Christian Forces." He showed that in Wisconsin there are thirty-two cities with a population of 5,000 or over, with Milwaukee's population of 206,000, makes 525,000 persons in cities, while in the country there are 1,412,000 people. In the cities there are one in every thirty children of the school age in Baptist Sunday schools. In the country places there are only one in eighty. In all Sunday schools outside the cities there are 200,000 Sunday school children with over 400,000 not in the schools or churches of any denomination.

Officers Elected. Investigation shows that the great majority of the preachers and leading laymen of the city churches come from the country and that the many city churches get much of their membership from the country towns. Of 400 students in an Eastern theological seminary 204 come from the country. Mr. Killop urged the city church to send workers into the country, and believes the work in rural districts must be largely undenominational. The country is sadly neglected now.

The Rev. D. B. Cheney, of Racine, spoke on "Our Centers of Population."

The convention re-elected the following officers: President—E. J. Lindsay, Milwaukee. Vice-Presidents—W. A. Barber, Warren; C. S. Webb, Oshkosh. Secretary—The Rev. C. N. Peterson, Stevens Point.

Treasurer—F. C. Dismore, Delavan. Auditors—D. Dixon and Joseph Moody, Milwaukee.

The address of Miss Jennette Goddard, the Jewish of New York, which closed this afternoon, exercises, was a touching recital of the work among the Jews of New York city.

JUDGE FIFIELD IS ON DUTY

Two Drunks Face His Honor and Are Sentenced.

In sentencing Dennis Concannon, of this city, to the county poor farm this morning to spend a five months' term, Charles L. Fifield performed his first duty as judge of the municipal court of Rock county. The prisoner was charged with vagrancy and being a common drunkard.

Webster Peters, a plain drunk, was fined $2 and costs or three days in jail.

BIG RALLY TONIGHT AT THE CREAM CITY

CAMPAIGN TO BE OPENED BY SENATOR SPOONER.

Janesville Will Send a Delegation—Speakers To Take the Stump All Over the State Immediately—A Big Crowd To Gather This Evening at West Side Turner Hall.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—Everything is ready for the republican mass meeting to be held tonight at the West Side Turner hall. Unusual interest is attached to this meeting, as it will be in reality the opening of the republican campaign in Wisconsin. After tonight the state central committee will send speakers to all parts of the state, and there will be simultaneous firing from republican batteries all along the line.

There is every indication that at tonight's meeting the capacity of West Side Turner hall will be overtaxed. August Zinn, sergeant-at-arms of the meeting, has already received about 500 applications for stage tickets and over 100 applications have been made to the state central committee. There is room for only 150 reserved seats on the stage. Many persons from outside the city will be present. Delegations are expected from Waukesha, Madison, La Crosse, Sheboygan, Janesville, Fond du Lac and other cities. All of the state and congressional nominees have been invited and nearly all of them will attend.

The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock by Joseph V. Quarles, who has been selected to act as chairman. Mr. Quarles will make a short speech. Gov. Scofield will be then introduced, and will speak briefly, the greater part of the evening being given over to Senator John C. Spooner. Senator Spooner will arrive in Milwaukee this morning.

REYNOLDS IS NOMINATED.

Choice of Republicans in the Third Wisconsin Senatorial District.

Racine, Wis., Oct. 6.—The third senatorial district republican convention was held here yesterday to nominate a candidate for the state senate. There were four candidates and balloting proceeded for six hours through sixty-six ballots before a choice could be reached. The first Racine district supported William T. Lewis, the Second Racine assembly district divided their support between John S. Blakey, of Union Grove, and Thomas H. Mosher, of Raymond, and the Kenosha district voted for John F. Reynolds, of Randall. The Second Racine district soon scattered its vote, but enough stayed by Blakey to create a deadlock. After the sixty-fifth ballot Blakey withdrew and Reynolds captured the nomination by a vote of 18 to 16 for Lewis. Each of the candidates were called before the convention and made to declare their opposition to the building of the Sheridan drive through the two counties of Kenosha and Racine at the expense of the counties before the county delegates would give them a vote.

To Be Made a Republican Paper

Deerfield, Wis., Oct. 6.—Amerik and Norden, the Norwegian paper published at Madison and edited by Per O. Stromme, candidate for secretary of state on the democratic ticket, was sold to Prof. R. B. Anderson. Anderson becomes editor in chief and will make it a republican paper. Mr. Stromme for the present will devote his entire time to campaign work.

WISCONSIN NATIONAL BANKS

Reports Are Filed According to Law At Washington

Washington, Oct. 6.—The five Wisconsin national banks made reports to the comptroller of the currency in July, but only four reported as to the condition of business on Sept. 20, there being one less bank on account of the consolidation of the Central National with the Wisconsin National. There is naturally a falling off in the showing made, the decrease in individual deposits from $21,324,900 in July to $19,689,749 in September, is due in part to the present report coming from four banks and also the withdrawals of currency preparatory to the introduction of fall business. The average reserves held also declined from 37.64 per cent, in July to 31.16 per cent, in September. Loans and discounts held up well, however, there being $16,548,426 left according to the present report, compared with $16,756,818 in July, and the holdings of gold were maintained at approximately $2,000,000.

To Save Population.

Vigorous measures will be taken in Madagascar to prevent the extinction of the population. After next year every man twenty-five years of age who cannot show that he is the father of a child, legitimate or illegitimate, will pay an annual tax of $3. Childless women over twenty-five years of age will pay $1.50.

A Japanese Auction.

A Japanese auction is a most solemn affair. The public do not call out their bids, but write their names, together with the amount they are willing to pay, on slips of paper and put them in a box. These are looked through, and the article awarded to the person who has made the biggest offer.

FATAL RAILWAY WRECK

Train Collide Near Milwaukee and Fireman Meets His Death—Many Sheep Burned.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—[Special]—A fatal railroad accident occurred on the C. & N. W. at one o'clock this morning. The dead:

DOKWAHL, THOMAS, fireman.

The wreck was the result of a rear end collision between a freight and a passenger train both bound for Milwaukee from Chicago. The collision was a violent one, and many cars were wrecked. Fire immediately broke out in the mail car, and also in a freight car loaded with sheep. The mail was all saved, but the sheep were burned.

The engineer of the passenger train saved himself by jumping.

The dead fireman lived at Chicago. He was twenty-six years old and married.

LEE TO GO TO HAVANA

Will Leave the Latter Part of the Month, and Take Seventh Corps Along.

Washington, Oct. 6.—[Special]—Gen. Fitz-Hugh Lee will go to Havana the latter part of this month to assume command of the military forces in the Cuban capital. He will take the Seventh army corps with him.

SICK MEN ARE HOME

Soldiers From Jacksonville Are Now With the Ones That Hold Them Dear.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—Four of the twenty-one convalescent First Wisconsin regiment soldiers who left Jacksonville in the hospital car arrived in the city at 2:20 this morning over the St. Paul road. Two of them are from Co. K, one from Co. L, and one, Private Paige, is of Co. C, Whitewater. The men are all in fairly good condition. All but the four who arrived here took a Northwestern train in Chicago for their respective homes in the northern part of the state.

The car in which the soldiers left the south was attached to regular trains and the trip was completed several hours behind the time expected.

The ill soldiers, including the three Milwaukee men, were:

- Co. B, Fort Atkinson—Corp. John Urban, Private Burdick, Peters and Waxson; Co. C, Whitewater—Private Paige; Co. D, Burlington—Corp. McConnell, Private Clark; Co. E, Beloit—Privates Larson, Bills, Ingram; Co. G, Madison—Sergeant Klink, Private John Anderson; Co. H, Monroe—Lieut. F. W. Beutler, Corporals Wittmer, Beck; Privates Summerfeldt, Kline; Co. K, Milwaukee—Privates Denkish, Ewald; Co. L, Milwaukee—Private Pahl.

Private Paige this morning said the trip was a rough one. "We left Jacksonville nearly four hours behind time Monday night," he said. "Harry Adams and Edgar Stone, who were formerly with Co. E, but now with the hospital corps, came with us as nurses. Lieut. Whiting, of Janesville, was the surgeon in charge."

The trip was made by way of Savannah, Macon, Atlanta, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Rockdale and Chicago.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Oct. 6.—[Special]—Forecast for Wisconsin:

Partly cloudy tonight and showers Friday.

Out Maybury and Cochems.

New York, Oct. 6.—The registration committee of the Amateur Athletic union has canceled the registration of Maybury and Cochems, of Madison, Wis., in the Western Intercollegiate association that had ahead disqualified them.

Muslim Students in Cairo.

In Cairo at the ancient academy of El Azhar 1,500 students are taught the doctrines of the Koran, the Muslim Bible. The students sit cross-legged in groups of from four to eight, with a Ulama, or teacher, in their midst. Exercise books are seldom employed, but occasionally a student makes a note with a reed on a slate, which is held in the left hand. The necessary outfit consists only of a rug, a copy of the Koran, and a low stand. Each pupil learns his lesson aloud, and the air is full of the most distracting noises. That may be heard at a great distance. The Koran alone is taught in these schools, the pupils being quite ignorant of mathematics, history or the sciences.

This Chicken Fetched $1,000.

The celebrated gamecock Commodore Wainwright, after his great victories at Holtsville, Laredo, San Antonio and Caldwell, was recently sold in the cockpit on Gen. Perdue's ranch in Burleson county, Texas, for $1,000. Don San Diego Montemayo, a sportsman and chicken fancier of Monterey, Mexico, became the purchaser. The money was paid in gold, and while it was being counted out the victorious rooster crowed lustily. It is said that the bird has won more than $5,000 for his owner during his short career.

TROOPS GET OUT OF PORTO RICO

The Evacuation Proceeds Rapidly Now.

THE STARS AND STRIPES SOON BE SUPREME.

Early Days of Next Week Will Find the American Army in Complete Control of the Whole Island—Third Wisconsin Regiment To Come Home at Once—Dark Course of an Assassin—Favor Cuban Independence.

Washington, Oct. 6.—[Special]—Authoritative advices from San Juan, Puerto Rico, say that evacuation of the island is now almost completed and that the stars and stripes will soon be the only flag seen. Early next week, it is predicted, the Americans will be practically in full control of the whole island.

The Third Wisconsin regiment is no longer needed and has been ordered home. It will leave as soon as arrangements can be completed.

A dark crime was committed Tuesday night, when Capt. Arlegio, of the civil guard at Bayama was stabbed to death by an unknown assassin.

Several arrests have been made, and among the men in custody is Dr. S. T. Hall, a prominent physician, who had recently challenged Capt. Arlegio to a duel.

Cubans For Independence

Santiago, Oct. 6.—[Special]—Returns received from the special election for delegates to the Cuban convention, indicate the success of the candidates favoring the immediate independence of the island.

FOUR ARE DROWNED

Yacht Capsized and the Merry Makers Meet Death in the Waters—The Victims.

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 6.—[Special]—Four persons were drowned in the Hudson river last night by the capsizing of a yacht. The dead are:

- N. L. WEATHERBY,

NO SHOW FOR A FIGHT

Hawthorne Club Does Not Think That Corbett and McCoy Can Get Together.

Buffalo, Oct. 6.—[Special]—It is stated this morning that the Hawthorne club has given up the idea of bringing off the McCoy-Corbett battle on Oct. 15.

BEYOND THE CARES OF EARTH

Mrs. Nellie McFarland.

Mrs. Nellie McFarland, of Osceola, Wis., died at the home of her brother, John H. Dower, 221 South Main street, last evening at 11 o'clock. Mrs. McFarland has resided in Janesville but a short time, but her death will be mourned by a large circle of acquaintances at her Osceola home where she was loved and esteemed by all. She was a member of the Eastern Star and Rebekah lodges and was a faithful worker in these orders.

False Teeth to the Church.

George A. Ward of Abingdon, Ill., was well-to-do at the time of his death, so the members of the Congregational church, to which he belonged, expected that he would surely leave something to the church. In this they were not disappointed, though Brother Ward's gift was not at all what they had looked for. He left the church a set of false teeth, which had been plugged. Like the sensible man he is, the treasurer of the church sent the teeth to a leading dentist. The molars assayed $27 to the set, and the church is now the richer by just that amount.

Banknote of Ancient Make.

One of the most valued treasures of the Asiatic museum at St. Petersburg is a bank note which dates from 1399 B. C., and which is said to be the oldest such note in existence. It bears the name of the imperial bank, the date and number of issue, and the signature of a mandarin, together with a list of punishments for forgery. This relic is probably written, for printing from wooden tablets is said to have been introduced in China in the year 160 A. D.

An employer of German clerks says that they work 20 per cent slower than English ones.

BOARDMAN'S VIEWS AS TO THE GUARD

ADJUTANT GENERAL MAKES HIS REPORT.

National Guard Should Be Like Regular Army—Urging Readmission to Guard of Members of the State Regiments Who Went to the War—Other Notes of Interest to Soldiers

Janesville soldiers and ex-guardsmen will be interested to know that Adj. Gen. Boardman made public his biennial report to the governor. The report covers the history of the adjutant-general's office for the past two years, and contains some interesting and important recommendations for the future military policy of the state. The history of the state's part in raising troops for the

BRIGADIER GENERAL BOARDMAN.

Spanish war is given at length, and the condition of the National guard, and the state military property since the regiments left the state, detailed. The Oshkosh strike is given from the adjutant-general's point of view.

Urges Readmission
The chief interest in the report, however, will center in Gen. Boardman's recommendations regarding the future of the guard, and the legislation desired for its good. Gen. Boardman urges the readmission to the national guard of the members of that organization at the outbreak of the war. The other general recommendations of the report are to the effect that the Wisconsin national guard be brought nearer to the regular army standard, and administered more according to regular army methods. This, he suggests, will bring the guard into closer relations with the regular army, and make the guard more immediately effective if needed again for active service in the national defense.

Reduce Governor's Staff.
Gen. Boardman makes other recommendations, among them that the governor's staff be reduced to five aides de camp, and making military experience an essential to appointment as aide. This recommendation would result in materially reducing the number of aides in the state in the future. An other recommendation is that the regular army rations be issued to the troops while at the annual encampment. This would accustom the men to the army ration, Gen. Board says, and have him prepared for it when he enlists in the United States service. Gen. Boardman also recommends the issuance of a complete field and cooking outfit to each company, so that the troops shall be prepared for active service at any time.

Regard to Pay.
Another recommendation, and one which is likely to receive the attention of the legislature at the approaching session, is that some legislative enactment be had, authorizing the payment of the troops, instead of the state treasurer advancing the money each year, and awaiting an appropriation to repay him.

MISS TILTON AT THE HEAD

Elected President of the W. F. M. S. of Court Street M. E. Church.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of Court Street church held its annual business meeting in the parlors of the church yesterday afternoon. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Miss Jennie Tilton.
First Vice President—Mrs. F. G. Loomis.

Second Vice President—Mrs. S. S. Higby.

Third Vice President—Mrs. William Campbell.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. C. A. Hunt.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. E. W. Lowell.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. M. Bostwick.

Mrs. C. A. Hunt was appointed as the program committee with power to select help. The subject of the afternoon's program was "Family Life in China." One feature of the afternoon was a vocal duet by Mrs. Christine Hawley and Mrs. Clarence L. Clark. Mrs. Hunt read a letter from Mrs. W. H. Lacey. The letter contained an account of the Mary C. Cook Memorial Orphanage, at Poochow, China. This institution was founded by a christianized native woman and is the home of little Clara Hunt Eaton, the orphan who is supported by the Court Street society. Mrs. Lacey acknowledged the receipt of a missionary box which this society sent to the home.

John Dillon's New Comedy.

A crowded house greeted John Dillon, who appeared at the Crawford Grand opera house last evening in "Bartlett's Road to Seltserville." Mr. Dillon who is always gladly hailed by Wichita theatre-goers, and who is one of the most popular comedians that come to Wichita, was at his best last night. His character of Jolly Uncle Jolly affords him an excellent opportunity and a great deal of scope for his talents. He has a good supporting company and taken in every way the performance last night thoroughly entertained the audience. The audience was enthusiastic in its applause. The play is exceedingly funny, is full of hearty laughs and the originality of Mr. Dillon always pleases. Miss Cuba Nible as Carrie Chapter is a charming, young lady who is talented, and she made a decided hit. Miss Ida May Blake as Eliza Harpy was also good. The audience was a splendid one. Mr. Dillon will present this play next Saturday evening, Oct. 8, at the Myers Grand.

SHOE FACTORY IS BOOMING

F. M. Marzluft & Co. Need More Room to Handle Their Business.

Business with the shoe firm of F. M. Marzluft & Company is booming, and the firm needs more room. In all probability the entire second floor of the newly built Hockett & Son bakery building, in the rear of the post office, will be rented and occupied by the shoe firm. The idea is to make it into a cutting room and to have it connected with the main factory by a suspended runway. Mr. Marzluft says that business is good in all sections of the country and that the future shows bright prospects.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. People's Drug Co., corner East Milwaukee street.

GOSSIP GATHERED BY GAZETTE JOTTERS.

A Happy Wedding Ceremony Is Solemnized at Evansville.—The Sudden Death of a Cut-Off City Man—Nuptial Event at Emerald Grove—Some Other News Notes.

Evansville, Oct. 6.—Miss May Stevens of this city, and M. De Witt Martin, of Red Wood Falls, Minn., were married at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents in this city. Rev. Henry Martin, of Rockford, an uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony. Miss Rosa Gyles, of Chicago, was bridesmaid, and R. Martin, of Evanston, was groomsmen. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Stevens, and has been a successful teacher for the past few years in Red Wood Falls. She is a graduate of the Rockford Seminary, and of the Evansville High school. The groom is a druggist at Red Wood Falls. About 150 guests attended the wedding, many being present from Rockford, Chicago, Beloit, Janesville, Red Wood Falls and Perry, Iowa. They left on the 10 o'clock train for their future home in Minnesota, amid the best wishes of a host of friends.

The remains of Mrs. Fred Clinch, who died suddenly Monday, were taken to Clinches Mills, New Brunswick, Canada, Wednesday, for burial. Mr. Clinch, his three little children, and his sister, Mrs. J. W. Chalkins, accompanied the remains.

ABANDON CAMP CUBA LIBRE

Malaria Is Prevalent, But the Source Cannot Be Traced?

Washington, D. C., Oct. 6.—Orders will soon be issued for the abandonment of Camp Cuba Libre, Jacksonville, Fla. The reports of medical officers stationed at the camp have been far from reassuring for some time, and the War Department has become convinced that in the interest of the health of the Several Army corps the troops should be removed to another camp.

An officer of the corps who was in Washington recently, said that at least 10 or 12 per cent of the men were sick with fever and that the troops as a whole were in poor health, as a result of the climatic conditions. Malarial fever, he said, was especially prevalent, and although the source of the trouble could not be traced to any particular cause, it seemed probable that the camp would have to be moved.

It has been understood for some time that the Seventh corps would be employed in the occupation of Cuba, the headquarters of the command being in Puerto Principe. Whether the troops will be withdrawn from Jacksonville before the movement to Cuba is begun, is not known.

W. F. VILAS' DAUGHTER WEDS

Lucian M. Hanks, of Madison, the Groom—Ceremony at the Ex-Senator's Home

Madison, Oct. 6.—The most conspicuous social event of the season was the marriage yesterday afternoon of Miss Mary Esther Vilas, only daughter of ex-Senator and Mrs. William F. Vilas to Lucian M. Hanks, teller of the State Bank of this city, and son of Lucian S. Hanks, president of the same bank.

The ceremony was performed at Grace Episcopal church by the Rev. Fayette Durlin at 3 o'clock, in the presence of a large gathering. Miss Bird Morrison, of Madison, was maid of honor, the bridesmaids being Misses Caryl Fairchild, Amelia Stevens, Jessie Vilas, and Elsie Wardner, the last named of Milwaukee. The best man was Marshall W. Hanks, brother of the groom, and the ushers, Messrs. W. F. Dockery and E. S. Main, of Chicago; Dr. William Kramer, of Milwaukee; F. M. Stephenson, of Menominee, Mich., and H. H. Morgan and R. C. Nicodemus, of Madison.

Healed the Wound

Abscess Was Lanced but Would Not Heal Until Hood's Sarsaparilla Purified His Blood—Now a Healthy Boy.

"Our little boy had a large abscess on one side of his head, back of his ear. It became as large as a pint cup. We had it lanced, but it seemed as though the wound would never heal. It would get better for a short time and then would break out again. The boy's body was covered all over with itching pimples and blotches. We decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, and, to our great joy, it has entirely cured him. He was always a weak and puny child, but since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla he is strong and rugged, and as healthy a boy as anyone could wish to see." T. L. JONES, Bluffton, Minnesota. OUR INTERESTS IN THE EAST.

European Nations Make Excited Comments.

CALL US A COLONIAL POWER.

Paris Newspapers Credit America with Designs on China—Anglo-American Understanding a Universal Object of Discussion.

Paris, Oct. 6.—Comments on the United States' participation in Chinese affairs continue in several of the papers. Denis Guibert, in the Figaro, offers an explanation of the sending of American warships to China that is worthy of note, considering its source. He says that perhaps President McKinley wishes, in return for the incontestable services rendered to America by Great Britain in the late war, so to dispose of part of the Asiatic fleet of the United States as to afford the British representative at Peking a pretext for immediate interference or his government a precedent for future action.

La Liberté says that the Americans, who by the position they have taken in the Pacific are becoming a colonial power, do not mean to be left out on the day when the big Chinese cake is cut up.

Still another aspect of the affair is presented in a dispatch from Madrid which says that the impending naval demonstration forbodes an Anglo-American understanding, the object of which is to prevent opposition on the part of the powers to American designs in the Philippines. The real motive of the telegram is revealed in the portion which declares that this manifestation carries the idea of menace against France and Russia—an assertion plainly meant to have an influence on the deliberations of the Paris peace commission.

MERRITT WANTS THE GROUP.

Tells Commission His Opinion, Which Is Thought to Favor Retention.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The United States peace commission, at its session Wednesday continued its conference with Maj.-Gen. Merritt, and practically concluded an extended canvass of the Philippine situation.

It could not be learned whether the general or Admiral Dewey had recommended the retention or the evacuation of the Philippine islands by the American forces. But it developed that Admiral Dewey handed Gen. Merritt a communication setting forth his judgment on the subject, and that the general submitted this to the commission with reports from the American military officers at Manila touching on the conditions prevailing in the islands.

Gen. Merritt concluded with a declaration of his judgment in the matter, and it may be said that he arrived in Paris hoping the United States commission would press for the possession of the Philippine archipelago. It is also true that the disposition of the troops in the Philippine islands before Gen. Merritt's departure was such, and was so ordered, as to warrant the view that a large or complete holding of the Philippine islands by the United States was contemplated.

STORY IS DENIED.

Sensational Rumor Regarding the Kaiser's Enmity Without Foundation.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Secretary Long of the navy department ridicules the dispatch from Berlin telling of the imminence of war between Germany and the United States. It was asserted that the American government was so much alarmed by Germany's attitude on the Philippine question that it had determined to keep the battle ships Iowa and Oregon in the Atlantic pending developments. Secretary Long declares that no new orders have been issued to the Oregon and the Iowa or to any other ship, and none are contemplated.

Incidentally this serves as a denial of the other story that these ships are being held back to make a naval demonstration against the coast of Spain if she does not promptly accede to the terms laid down by the American peace commissioners.

SAYS RUMORS ARE PREMATURE.

Stories Sent Out Regarding the Peace Commission Are Denied.

Washington, Oct. 6.—It can be stated on authority that the various stories published relating to the work of the peace commission now in Paris, wherever they assume to indicate a failure of negotiations, a renewal of hostilities and the dispatch of a naval force to the Spanish coast, are purely speculative. The proceedings may last one month or three. That will depend entirely upon the view taken by the American commissioners of the situation in Paris. The Spanish government is now fully informed through its commissioners of the exact extent of America's demands. The impression in official circles is that the conditions are absolute in their general scope, yet there may be opportunity or slight amendments in matters of detail.

Two Regiments Coming Home. Ponce, Porto Rico, Oct. 6.—Brig.-Gen. Ernst, with the Sixteenth Pennsylvania and the Third Wisconsin regiments, has been ordered to leave Ponce for the United States. Both regiments have a number of sick.

Spain's Warships for Sale. Madrid, Oct. 6.—The government has authorized Capt. Anon, minister of marine, to sell the Spanish war vessels remaining in Cuban waters to the Dominican or other republics desiring to purchase.

A MAN CAN'T WORK

WHEN HE IS SUFFERING WITH PILES

He Can't Eat, Sleep, Can't Get Comfort Any Way But One—Pyramid Pile Cure Will Cure Him, Give Relief at Once.

Just a little pain may so distract a man's mind that it will cost him hundreds of dollars. Life is a battle. To succeed one needs all his brain force to apply to the question at hand. Even a corn will make him irritable, cross, angry—and an angry man seldom succeeds. The trifling pain of a corn is a pleasant feeling besides the agonizing ache of piles. That is a pain which seems to pervade the whole body. It communicates itself to all parts near the seat of the trouble and brings on a heavy dragging feeling in the perineum. Those who have never so suffered do not know what it means. It racks the nerves, prevents sleep, prevents concentration of thought and makes a man lose flesh as fast as he would with a virulent fever.

And yet piles are looked upon as a little thing. They are neglected—allowed to run on from month to month and year to year. By and by comes a surgical operation. Maybe it cures—maybe it kills.

There is only one sure, safe and quick cure for piles. It is the Pyramid Pile Cure. It is a recent discovery and its properties are such that it cleanses, soothes and heals the inflamed parts, reduces the inflammation at once and with continued treatment, removes all swelling and all trace of the disease. It puts the membranes in a healthy, active condition and cures completely and permanently.

From C. F. Collins, Garnett: "I commenced using the Pyramid Pile Cure and my case was so bad I thought the remedy was going to fail in my case, but before I had used two-thirds of one package I began to feel much better and can honestly say I am entirely cured. It is the quickest and surest remedy I have ever heard of."

From Josiah Roberts, Port Oran, N. J.: "Just one-quarter of a package of the Pyramid Pile Cure did wonders for me and I have lost no opportunity of recommending such a great remedy."

From Wm. McHale, Rockport, Mass.: "One package of Pyramid Pile Cure has helped me more than anything I have yet used."

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists generally. If your druggist doesn't keep it, he will get it for you if you ask him. Book on cause and cure of piles sent free. Address, Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

Governor's Money Is Gone.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 5.—Gov. Shaw may be out of pocket as a result of his liberality in extending loans to hundreds of members of details stationed at Camp McKinley. The government refused to issue pay prior to the mustering out of the two regiments now home on furlough and Gov. Shaw placed in the hands of the adjutant-general $500 to be distributed in $5 loans. Before all entitled to money had received it, some members came twice to the desk of the disbursing agent and secured $10 each by signing fictitious names. As a consequence some members are without the money intended for them.

Religious Trouble in China.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 6.—In a signed interview regarding the recent disturbance near Peking, Ho Yow, the Chinese consul here, said: "I believe that the recent trouble in China is due to religion; to the efforts of the missionaries to carry on their work and the antagonistic relations existing between the Chinese who still cling to their faith of centuries past and those who have adopted the ideas of the Christian religion. I do not think it will result seriously, owing to the fact that they have a lack of co-operation."

DEWEY MAY BE VICE ADMIRAL.

President McKinley Will Ask Congress to Revive the Grade.

New York, Oct. 6.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: President McKinley and Secretary of the Navy Long have determined to recommend to congress the revival of the grade of Vice admiral to be filled by the promotion of Rear Admiral Dewey.

President McKinley in his annual message and Secretary Long in his annual report intend to devote considerable space to the achievements of the Asiatic Squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Dewey and the splendid judgment and diplomatic tact that officer displayed in handling the many difficult questions which arose before the arrival of the American troops and the capture of Manila.

As under existing law Rear Admiral Dewey will reach the retiring age in December, 1899, there is a strong probability that Secretary Long will also urge that congress pass a law permitting the retention of that officer upon the active list for an additional ten years. A law permitting such action in the case of officers receiving the thanks of congress for gallant conduct in the civil war is now on the statute books, but the authorities would be glad to see the law changed so that officers of the recent and future wars be similarly rewarded.

There is little doubt that congress will willingly adopt the recommendation regarding Rear Admiral Dewey's advancement.

TWO KILLED, THREE HURT.

Sawmill Completely Destroyed by Boiler Explosion.

Reno, Nev., Oct. 6.—A fatal boiler explosion occurred at the sawmill of Liberty & Lee, six miles from Verdi, Nev., in which two lives were lost and three persons seriously injured. The entire plant was completely destroyed and not a fragment of the boiler was to be found. The killed are:

J. SHERRICK, engineer.

— MITCHELL.

The injured:

J. Williams, jaw broken, head injured.

— Fargo, leg broken, internal injuries.

Man Known as "Prisco," slightly injured.

E. Laherty and F. Cardinal miraculously escaped with slight injuries. Of Sherrick only a small piece of his hand was found. The explosion was caused by the engineer allowing the boiler to run dry and attempting to fill it with cold water.

Stomach Troubles

Caused by Loss of Nerve Force, Weakened Vitality and Nervous Prostration Cured By Dr. Miles Nervine.

It cannot be too strongly impressed upon the minds of American men and women that the nerves rule every action of our bodies and control all the affairs of our existence. The nervous system is the fountain from which flows the very essence of life, and which preserves throughout all the years of our lives that personality and individuality that makes each one of us what we are. When the nerves become irritated or exhausted from sickness or strain, when the brain has been weakened from overwork, loss of sleep, or any cause whatever, derangements of the nerve centers follow, and such manifestations as sick headache, loss of appetite, flatulency, sour stomach, dyspepsia, nervousness, irritability, follow as a natural result. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is fully competent to correct all such disordered conditions of the nerve centers. It gives the tortured nerves a rest and permits them to recover their tone and steadiness. It invigorates the digestive organism, puts new life into the blood and soothes the tired brain to sweet, refreshing sleep. By it thousands of weak, sickly, incompetent invalids have been made strong and healthy.

"Four years ago I suffered an attack of bilious fever which left my stomach in a very weak condition. The nerves seemed to be prostrated and I suffered distressing pains after eating. Gas would form in my stomach and cause me to feel weak and sick. I was treated by physicians in Portland, but they were unable to relieve me. A friend advised me to take Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, which I did. The results were in every way entirely satisfactory. I was cured of my stomach trouble and since then my health has been splendid.

STEPHEN W. SHACKFORD,

Gorham, Maine.

"I suffered with nervous dyspepsia which caused me much trouble and uneasiness and which refused to yield to the doctors' medicine or advertised remedies until I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I am happy to say that after using that great remedy for a few weeks my stomach trouble entirely disappeared and I have not seen a sign of dyspepsia since."

W. L. WASHBURN, Westfield, Pa.

"Loss of sleep and the care and anxiety from attending a sick bed broke down my nervous system and I lost all my good natured feelings. I had no appetite, my digestion was badly deranged and I was dull and tired all the time. In two days after I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine I could see a change for the better. As I continued the treatment my appetite returned, my sleep became restful and refreshing and in a week I was up and about the house. Since that time my health has been good."

Mrs. FRANCES COFFMAN,

Rushville, Va.

"For nearly three years I suffered with severe stomach trouble. Would have a cramping pain in my stomach that would almost seem to kill me. When the doctors failed I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine from which I received untold benefit. I was finally cured of the trouble and for several years have enjoyed excellent health."

All druggists are authorized to sell Dr. Miles' Nervine on a guarantee that first bottle will benefit or money will be refunded. Be sure and get Dr. Miles' Nervine. Take nothing else. Write us about your troubles and ailments and we will give you the honest advice of a trained specialist, absolutely free of charge. Booklet on heart and nerves sent free. WHY USE

POND'S EXTRACT OINTMENT IS UNEQUALED FOR PILES.

Pond's Extract

Why not something else?

Because

Dr. J. J. THOMAS says: "It is incomparably superior to any extract of Hamamelis I have ever used."

Dr. O. G. RANDALL says: "Nothing can equal Pond's Extract. I have tested others, and yours is four times as strong as the best."

Dr. J. C. MITCHELL says: "Pond's Extract of Hamamelis Virginia is the only reliable article I have found."

Dr. H. K. WEILER says: "The difference between Pond's Extract and so-called Witch Hazel is the difference between a cent and a dollar."

Dr. H. F. MERRILL says: "It is far superior to any I have used in strength and purity."

Dr. R. J. HARRISON says: "I have never found any extract equal to Pond's."

Dr. POWELL says: "Hereafter I shall use no other than Pond's Extract."

And numerous others of similar purport.

The Ups and Downs

Of Shoes are many, but the quality of our $3.50 MEN'S REGENT

Shoes keeps steadily advancing. The best of last season's production was our starting point and we've pushed ahead so that today we can show you dozens of styles at this price.

Our Winter Tan on the modified Bull Dog last, brass hooks and eyelets, heavy extension edge soles, welt sewed; is very popular among good dressers.

While Our Willow Calf on the straight London last, rounded toe, in dark shade of tan meets the demand of the quiet dresser who wants a good, stylish Shoe for winter wear.

The Vici Kid in black, with brass hooks and eyelets, heavy extension edge welt sewed sole, makes a very pretty Shoe and is popular with those who want to combine a light body with a heavy sole.

Our Box Calf with chrome kid lining throughout is attracting much attention from those who believe in getting along without wearing rubbers or overshoes. It is made on a generously rounded toe, and stylishly fronted with brass eyelets and hooks; heavy extension edge sole, welt sewed.

We have others at these prices in the many styles of toe and width of last. This large assortment of Shoes at these popular prices makes this the most popular Shoe store in town.

STATE EXPENSES

Oshkosh Northwestern—The democrats have been trying to deceive the voters by claiming that the increased state tax is due to the extravagance of the present state administration, when as a matter of fact this tax was levied by the legislature two years ago to pay floating debts which have been accumulating for years and which the last democratic administration could have paid with the money from ex-state treasurers had it been applied for that purpose. There is no place in the departments where there are greater opportunities for extravagance than in the department of public property. It is in this department where extravagance begins if there is extravagance. The biennial report of the state superintendent of public property has just been completed and it shows a decrease of expenses in his department, rather than otherwise, for the past two years. In his report he says: "A comparison of the expense of the department for the biennial periods ending Sept. 30, 1892, 1894, 1896 and 1898, shows well for the years 1897 and 1898. The total expense of the department including special appropriations and excluding salary of superintendent and assistant in each case for the biennial period, ending September 30, 1892, was $186,091.76 for the biennial period ending Sept. 30, 1894, was $187,001; for the biennial period ending September 30, 1896, $176,622.19; and for the biennial period ending Sept. 30, 1898, $167,339.73—showing a difference in favor of the biennial period ending September 30, 1892, of $18,752.03, a difference in favor of the biennial period ending September 30, 1898, over the period ending September 30, 1894, of $19,661.67; a difference in favor of the last biennial period over the period ending September 30, 1896, of $9,332.46. The expenses of the department for these several biennial periods after deducting the special appropriations made by the legislature, and over which the superintendent has no control, and excluding the salary of superintendent and assistant in each case was: For period ending September 30, 1892, $171,690.91; period ending September 30, 1894, $184,394.10; period ending September 30, 1896, $170,214.69; period ending September 30, 1898, $161,550.92—showing a difference in favor of 1898 over 1892 of $20,439.99; over 1894 of $23,143.18, and over 1896 of $8,933.77."

Clinton Babbitt was a silver man when Noah's are landed. In this fact is the origin of the name "Babbitt metal"—a compound used to make the journal bearings for swiftly revolving windmills and other machines composed of buzzing wheels.

E. W. Chaffin intimates that he expects the "La Follette men" and the disgruntled Irish democrats to vote the prohibition ticket this fall. There are no "La Follette men" of the kind Mr.

Chaffin mentions, while the disgruntled Irish democrats will vote for Gov. Scofield. Mr. Chaffin sees pleasant sights in the horizon, but it will be noted that although a man travel 9,612,840 miles, the horizon was still as far away as it was when he started.

No thinking man takes the Milwaukee News seriously. The News is suffering with a bad attack of populist rabbiism, but its bite will not inoculate a healthy person, and its bark is harmless.

The democrats speak of the "doodle book" with holy horror, yet the book was used through all the democratic administrations, and until Gov. Scofield learned of the abuse and put a stop to the pernicious practice.

Gen. Wheeler told the investigating committee that no incompetence or neglect came under his notice during the war. Gen. Wheeler is an honest man, his word will be generally credited.

Oh yes! The three democrats who run the democratic party in Rock County make a ring—one stands in the middle and issues orders and the other two trot around him in a circle.

Chalk down a credit mark for General Wheeler. He refuses to lie for the benefit of either the yellow press, or the democratic party.

Ex-Gov. Peck would much prefer to spend his spare time shooting ducks at Lake Koshkonong, anyway.

The weather is right, and surely the opportunity could not be better for summer, fall and winter shoes, than during our three days' special 10 per cent discount sale. Amos Rehberg & Co.

diately to the relief of Bacon and Wilkinson to prevent uprising of all the Indians of northern Minnesota."

A telephone message from Fort Snelling says three companies of the Third Infantry have been ordered under arms and overcoats issued to the soldiers.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Secretary Bliss has received a telegram from Inspector Tinker announcing a fight with the Bear Lake Indians in Minnesota. It did not say how many were killed. Marshal O'Connor wired Atty-Gen. Griggs that a general Indian uprising was imminent. On receipt of these advices Secretary Alger ordered reinforcements sent to the scene at once on a special train, and with a Gatling gun if needed.

QUAY'S LETTER IN COURT.

Police Examination of the Senator and His Son at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 6.—In the police examination Wednesday of Senator Quay and his son on the charge of conspiracy to use state funds illegally in the defunct People's bank, letters and telegrams played an important part. A number of letters were identified by Receiver Barlow as the ones found in the desk of Cashier Hopkins after he had killed himself. He identified these as coming from Senator Quay and State Treasurer Haywood. The following was to the president of the People's bank:

"James McManus, President.—Dear Sir: On Monday we mailed you check for $100,000 on account of the funds of the commonwealth. The understanding is that I am not to draw against this or any part of it until the Hon. R. R. Quay has made or arranged satisfactorily with you the loan of $100,000, to be made next week.

"B. J. HAYWOOD, State Treasurer." Expert Accountant Goldsmith was recalled. He said that $100,000 had been loaned to R. R. Quay at the time the letters mention, and on further examination he said it had been paid. The state deposit had been $500,000 until March, 1896, when it was increased to $600,000. This one was to Cashier Hopkins:

"July 13, 1897.—Dear John: Give Mr. Huhn $25,000 for me. It is for a margin in some stocks. Send me note for $25,000 and I will sign and return. "M. S. QUAY."

Another letter from Quay to Hopkins alluded to the signing of a note and concluded in this way:

"If the stock goes higher we will win. United Gas and Sugar are sadening, but Dolan doesn't like us well enough to let us in on the first, and the second is a dangerous gamble."

One telegram from Quay read: "If you buy a thousand 'Met' for me I will shake the plum tree."

After a hearing lasting three hours, Senator Quay and his son and C. H. McGee were bound over for appearance at the next term of court. Bail was fixed at $5,000 in each case, David H. Lane, a local political leader, going bail. The case now goes on the list for trial at the term of court beginning in November.

NAMES FOR MONEY.

This Year It Is Oil and "Let the Oil Trickie" Is Heard in the Land.

To Artemus Ward is attributed the saying that though there are many men in the United States who never seem to have any money, there does not seem to be any men in the United States who haven't a name for money, and the less money a man has the more names he uses. Many colloquial names for money, if not indeed a majority of them, have their origin among gamblers, or at least card players and other individuals who delight to be described in the newspapers as "members of the sporting fraternity." Last summer the name very generally in use for money was the word "cash;" the summer before the word phrase in most general use was "the long green." Prior to that such nouns were frequently in use as "dough," "sugar," "stamps," "the ready," "dust," "the old stuff," "the price," "the coin" and "spendulux." This year the favorite appears to be "the oil," and what has come to be a familiar expression is "let the oil trickie," which is a latter-day version of the old familiar advice, "put up or shut up." When one such expression is fairly started on its way to popularity it remains in use for usually a year, or until superseded by one more descriptive or having at least better claims to acceptance as a verbal novelty. Oil has one point of resemblance to money. It is hard to hold.—New York Sun.

PAY OF SECRETARY IS NOT INCREASED

GOOD TEMPLARS VOTE THE SCHEME DOWN.

Salary Will Remain the Same as Last Year, But Men Will Be Put in the Field.—The Closing Session of the Grand Lodge Held Today.

The adjourned meeting of the Mutual Benefit Association was held at 8 o'clock. The proposition to raise the salary of the secretary to $800 and requiring him to give his whole time to this work, acting as general field agent as well as secretary was defeated, and the salary was fixed at $350 the same as last year. The directors were instructed to put a suitable agent into the field at least a part of the year. It was also voted to send an agent to the International Supreme Lodge which meets at Toronto, Canada, next June, for the purpose of working up the interests of this association among the representatives of the other Grand Lodge jurisdictions of this country in which the association has authority to work its insurance. At the meeting of the directors, H. A. Porter, of Fort Atkinson, was elected president, E. W. Chaffin, of Waukesha, vice president, B. F. Porter, of Milwaukee, elected secretary and Ira Stewart of Mauston, treasurer.

The grand lodge was called at 9 o'clock. Some routine business was transacted and the newly elected officers were installed by Hon. S. D. Hastings, of Green Bay.

Mr. Hastings is one of the ablest and most prominent Good Templars in the world. He has been at the head of the order in the world more years than any other man in all the order. He is the most loved and honored of all the twelve thousand Good Templars in Wisconsin. So it was very fitting that this grand and good old veteran in our ranks should have been commissioned by the members of the subordinate lodges of the state to present to Grand Chief Templar W. H. Clark immediately after his installation a purse containing $200 in gold as a slight appreciation of his services and sacrifices he has made during the past year. Mr. Clark was completely surprised, and in a few remarks, which brought tears to the eyes of most everyone present, accepted this token with his heart overflowing with thankfulness.

Wednesday Afternoon.
The real contest of the afternoon session was over the selection of the place for the holding of the next Grand lodge session. La Crosse, Milwaukee and Waupun were contending for this honor. On the third ballot La Crosse won, receiving 68 votes out of a total of 117.

Change By-Laws.
At the afternoon's session the by-laws were so changed that one tenth of the district tax be placed in a special fund for mission work in the foreign languages to be used by the grand lodge executive committee and the committee on Scandinavian work, instead of taking three fourths of the district tax coming from the Scandinavian lodges be placed in a special fund for mission work in this language.

This has been the most perplexing question of all the grand lodge sessions, and the two committees on Scandinavian work or on district lodges and district work have wrestled with the question from the opening of the Grand Lodge until this forenoon when in joint session the above proposition was reached as common ground as received the unanimous support of both committees and passed the Grand Lodge with out a dissenting vote.

The session of the grand lodge will conclude tonight with a public meeting at Odd Fellows hall commencing at 7:30 o'clock. O. W. Blain, district lecturer, will give some stereopticon views. No admission will be charged.

"I want to thank The Gazette for its complete and correct accounts of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge," said E. W. Chaffin, "and I also wish to say that in my interview published by The Gazette, I was correctly quoted. Interviews are generally more or less inaccurate, but this one was an exception to the rule, and contained no mistakes."

Notice.
To policy holders in the United Farmers Mutual Life Insurance Co.—The adjourned meeting of the policy holders in the above company will be at the Court House in the city of Janesville, on Saturday, Oct. 8, 1898, at 1 o'clock p. m. The committee appointed at the last meeting are prepared to give a full report, based upon a thorough investigation. It is important that all policy holders should be present. A definite organization will be formed at this meeting.

About Fish.
We will receive tomorrow morning our fresh caught fish for Friday's dinner. If you figure on having fish for dinner better get in early as the stock may be limited. Sanborn.

The quartette promise to be on hand tomorrow evening at 7:15 o'clock and the program as originally arranged will be carried out. Rev. C. W. Dennis will deliver the address and many other will participate in the exercises. Mayor Thoroughgood will be unable to be on hand as he was called out of the city this week.

LOCAL MILL HANDS TO GO TO ALBANY

WILL WORK IN THE LINEN PLANT.

Majority of Them Have Worked at Cotton Machines and Are Familiar with the Business.—Proprietor and Strikers Both Give Their Side of the Story.

Thirty local people will leave the city soon for Albany, Wis., to take the place of the strikers in the Albany linen mills. Most of those who will go are women and girls who were formerly employed in the cotton mills.

C. H. Van Arsdale, one of the owners of the Albany mills, arrived in the city this morning and spent the day here securing help.

At the Grand Hotel a Gazette man found Mr. Van Arsdale busily engaged in explaining details to those who applied for work. He assured them that no violence would be offered them by the strikers.

"I want to get just thirty hands here in Janesville," said Mr. Van Arsdale. "I am having no trouble in getting all the help necessary. I leave this evening for home to make arrangements for their coming. Later on the hands will come up from Janesville in a body. There need be no fear from the strikers as they are showing no disposition towards violence, although they are doing a good deal of talking."

Weavers the Cause.
"The whole trouble originated with the weavers," said Mr. Van Arsdale.

"They objected to a reduction in made necessary by the changing of machinery in the mill which brought piece work prices at a lower scale. The weavers as well as all my help knew nothing whatever about mill work until I took them in and spent many weeks of hard labor in educating them. I lost much money by employees not knowing their business, at the start, but instead of charging their mistakes to them, as many mills in the east do, I overlooked it in the hopes that time would remedy the trouble. Now I find that new machinery that allows the help less pay is absolutely necessary and because they are not making former wages the weavers all went out on a strike. We will be running again when get the help from Janesville cured for in Albany, and no trouble need be feared by those going from here."

Girls whose ages range within eighteen and twenty years formed the greater portion of those who gave Mr. Van Arsdale their names this morning, saying that they would go when sent for. They will be able to earn about $5 to $6 a week at Albany. Many of them have worked in the local cotton mills and are well acquainted with the machinery used in a linen factory.

The Strikers' Side.
One of the strikers was also in town this morning. He says that starvation wages are now in force, and that no one who has to pay $3 a week board is more than able to exist in Albany.

The weavers issued a statement for publication in which they state their position as follows:

"The strike of about thirty of the employees of the Albany linen mills is result of the proposed reduction. The management wanted the spinners and bobbin weavers to accept a cut from about 65 cents a day to about 60 cents a day. Some of these are getting now only about 45 cents a day. It was also proposed that the weavers be required to continue at 40 cents a hundred yards, at which rate the weavers make from 35 cents to 95 cents a day. The weavers want 45 cents a hundred yards, which would make wages about $1.10 a day. The management were willing to make a concession to the weavers, but when relief for the spinners and bobbin weavers was refused, they declined to return to work."

G. H. Van Arsdale and Martin Nichols are the principal owners of the mills.

Albany, Wis., Oct. 6.—[Special.]—A mistake was made in the special sent The Gazette from this city yesterday. The weavers had been working for 40 cents per 100 yards, and resented a cut to 35 cents per hundred yards.

BRIEF NOTES OF LOCAL NEWS

From now until Saturday evening we will give you a special ten per cent. cash discount on all shoe purchases. Amos Rehberg & Co.

Mrs. C. T. Winslow and daughter, Mrs. H. D. Hoover entertained a number of ladies this afternoon at tea at their Forest Park home.

OUR ten per cent. special discount shoe sale started with a rush this morning. It continues until Saturday evening. Our prices were already low, but the ten per cent. off knocks them down to a very small figure. Goods are all new. Amos Rehberg & Co.

JOHN ATKINSON, former local secretary of the Y. M. C. A. who is now home on a thirty day furlough as a member of the regular army hospital corps, has his furlough expire Sunday and is now anxiously waiting a continuance of ten days for which he applied several days ago. Mr. Atkinson says that he has had all the army life that he cares for and that he is now perfectly willing to be mustered out of service just as soon as the government sees fit. In case his ten day furlough does not arrive he will leave at once for Jacksonville.

A PROHIBITION TICKET

Nominations Were Made By a Mass
Convention Composed of Fifteen Delegates.

Eleven men and four women comprised the mass convention that assembled in Good Templars hall in this city this afternoon for the purpose of nominating a prohibition county ticket. Following was the ticket placed in the field:

Sheriff—John Stockman, Harmony.
County Clerk—S. H. Joiner, La Prairie.

Treasurer—A. S. Maxon, Milton.
Register of Deeds—Thomas North, Edgerton.

Clerk of Court—F. Howarth, Clinton.
Surveyor—H. T. Plumb, Milton.
Coroner—H. A. Palmer, Janesville.

Superintendent of Schools, Second District—Miss Dora Haviland, Janesville.

The committee after placing L. B. Webb, of Evansville, on the ticket withdrew his name for the reason that he was not an attorney. This vacancy will be filled later.

THE FARMERS WILL FIGHT

Little Doubt But What They Will Go Into Court.

Henry Tarrant, of La Prairie, and T. M. B. Gunn, of Rock, two members of the committee appointed at the farmers' meeting last Monday, together with Attorney M. O. Mount, returned home last evening from Stoughton where they spent yesterday in session with a committee appointed by the Dane county leaf growers. The Dane county farmers will fight their assessments and so instructed their committees.

Both committees agreed that the Mutual Life Insurance Company of Sparta was unjust in their claims, and that in nearly every instance their assessment was far in excess of the actual loss. If no other way for a settlement is to be obtained both committees favor bringing the case into the courts and fighting it to the bitter end.

It is thought that at the meeting to be held at the court house in this city on Saturday, it will be decided to resist the payment of assessments, and fight all efforts to collect them.

FUNERAL OF JOHN KINNEY

Services Held From St. Patrick's Church
This Morning.

The remains of John Kinney, who was killed by the care near Eagle yesterday were interred this morning in Mount Olivet cemetery. At 9:30 o'clock services were held from St. Patrick's church conducted by Rev. E. M. McGinnity. The pall bearers were Charles Knudson, Charles Viney, Michael Dawson, Martin Connors, Joseph Denning and Peter Riley.

WOMAN WAS SAVED BY LOCAL HUNTERS

ALVA P. RUSSELL'S PARTY IN NORTH WOODS.

But For Them a Cabin and Its Occupant Would Have Been Destroyed.—The Absent Husband and Father Had Expected to Find All in Ashes.

Alva P. Russell, of this city, and his party of friends, who are now in camp in the northern pinery district in Barron county, have been fighting the fire for the past five days. They proved themselves heroes, recently, by saving the life of a helpless woman who was alone in her little cabin unaware that her humble home was being hemmed in by the flames.

Mr. Russell and his friends had just started in the direction of a large marsh to hunt partridges when they saw smoke and flames in the distance. Knowing of the location of the cabin and wishing to give the alarm to the occupants, they turned back. Then they found a bright faced woman in the cottage. She knew nothing of her danger until she was informed by the hunters. By this time the woods only thirty rods away were red with flame, while smoke filled the air so that it was difficult to breathe. The hunters, after a hurried consultation, decided to burn over the grounds about the cabin, and in this way they were successful in saving the cabin, although they had a hard fight. Then the wind suddenly shifted in another direction and the danger was over. The little band of fire fighters then set to work with pails of water to extinguish the "back fire." About this time the husband and aged father of the rescued woman appeared. They said they expected to find all in ashes, and were very grateful.

Tuesday morning of this week, Mrs. Gaston, of Beloit, who is with the party in company with her husband, was awakened at 3:25 by crackling flames. She aroused the party and for two long hours they fought a hot fire that was raging in a nearby marsh.

Joke on a Burglar.

The other night at Kokomo, Ind., while the family slept with windows and doors open on account of the heat, an unknown thief entered the residence of Dr. A. J. Bates and carried off everything he could find, leaving the house topsy turvy. Among the articles taken was a set of teeth belonging to a female member of the household that she had rolled up in a handkerchief under her pillow, the burglar mistaking the teeth for money.

Queen of the Montauks.

HE queen of the Montauks is Maria Banks. Her royal residence is a little house in Amagansett, just beyond East Hampton, L. I., on the road to Montauk, where the gathering of soldiers, even sick ones, at her old home cannot fail to make stirring thoughts for her, remembering, as she must, "the days that are no more," when her father's warriors gathered about the coast, wild as the rocks or woods or peaceful as the meeting waters. Since the death, in 1875, of King Pharaoh, the last monarch of the Montauks, nobody has made much public account of the little handful of Indians, scattered who knows where? Before Pharaoh died they lived happily, ruling the people in a kindly paternal spirit with the laudable ambition of educating their children for professions—one to teach, one to preach and one was meant for the law. To that end they had a tutor in the family, and the schoolroom was their hope and pride—the heart of the home.

While Pharaoh lay sick he charged Maria to keep the records of the tribe and to maintain authority, but when he died a council met, the young men defied Maria and demanded the books. These she had buried, but when the council closed the books were gone, with no trace of them to this day.

"It is their fault if they have no more Montauk," Maria declares. "They made a mob, smashed windows, and I had to get away with my little children. In the hope of protection and help at East Hampton." Here in one of the Gardiner homes, Maria found work. Some one, she hardly knows his name, persuaded her to sell her right, giving her for the consent thus obtained twelve acres and a house in the "free-town" quarter of East Hampton village. Here she kept a home for her children, with many sorry influences and results, and she worked for their daily bread, biding her time in silence, hoping for justice from Washington, in which she vaguely trusted, but far too timid to venture there for help. Now and then somebody came to get her to talk, but her instinct felt, rather than her shrewdness detected, a self-interest which made her silent and she put her hope in her bright boys, until ambition seemed to die in them. Then she married a colored man from Hampton, Va., a stalwart bronze Othello, a foreman of a department in a fish factory at Promised Land. He is proud of his wife but his limitations compel him to meek waiting. Freedom came to his race. Maybe justice will reinstate Maria.

The Use of Portieres.

Portieres, it should be remembered, are supposed to have their origin in a need. They are intended to do service to shut out disagreeable draughts, sometimes sounds. Such being their service, it is manifestly unsuitable that they should be tightly shirred on a pole in a way that takes sharp and reaching pulls to draw them. They should be invariably on rings and move easily and quickly over the pole, the arrangement of cords that draw them aside instantaneously being preferred. Their design should be simple, solid colors of a neutral tint being the most acceptable. It is rare that a figured pattern is satisfactory. They should not hang in a doorway where the doors are open and set back. They sometimes cover acceptably a door that must be permanently closed, but otherwise they replace a door that is removed for reasons. Their texture, while thick, should be soft and pliable, hanging in easy folds. Nothing is more tasteless than a stiff, wiry fabric to screen a doorway. The poles should be within the door frame and set perhaps six inches from the top, never over the molding and finish of the door.

Would Lend, but Not Pay.

The late W. G. Willis, the playwright, though lavish of money when he had it, hated parting with it in any formal way. When a friend, to whom he owed $5, took advantage of his just having received a check for a play to ask for payment, the debtor declined on account of "the claims" upon him. The friend, who knew his ways, came back a few hours later and asked him for $5 to help him out of a difficulty. "Certainly, my boy," said Willis, entirely forgetting what had gone before, "take what you want." And he offered him a handful of sovereigns.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE MARRIED

The United States is one of those favored countries where a surplus male population makes it rather more than likely that any given girl will be duly married in the course of time. This is aided somewhat by the fact that a number of women have discovered that it is more or less pleasant not to have a husband to hang around and have therefore turned the unpleasant title "old maid" into the better chosen "bachelor girl." This, of course, makes it all the more certain that those who are really waiting for the right young man to come along will not have to wait so long nor wait in vain. Imported from other countries are a number of means intended to enable the young woman in this category to learn further what sort of man it is that she will have when she gets one, some of these ancient devices also going to prove whether she will have one or not. Among the Romanians, as may be read in the newly published first volume of the Folk-Lore Congress, New Year's day, just as midnight has brought it in, is the favored time for learning what it is that the future holds in store by way of matrimonial venture. The young woman and as many of her friends as are not too much frightened by this seeking of the fates at an untimely hour enter the stables with a little wand and therewith strike the foot of the first animal they come upon, saying with the successive strokes, "This year; the next year; the year after—." They seldom go farther than that. If the horse, or cow, or swine, or sheep rises to the first stroke, this will be their year of bridal; if the second, next year will be, and so on.

She may also take a cake of salt and eat it down without drinking, just as she goes to bed. The fortunate he will appear in the silent watches of the night, bearing some beverage for the quenching of her thirst, so that she will be able to see what he looks like. Another means requires the laying off of the outer garments and, thus scantily arrayed, venturing out to a neighboring hedgerow, carefully blindfolded. As soon as she has touched one of the stakes of the hedge with her hands she must count nine—with this as the first—and tie the ninth stake with a ribbon or some few hairs from her head. Failing a hedge, a picket fence might be made to answer; though a rail fence would hardly do. The character of the stake, short or tall, full of buds or dry, will indicate the character of the coming spouse.

NEW STAR IN MUSICAL WORLD

Lorenzo Perosi, the rising star in the Italian firmament of music, has already done sufficiently well to fix him in his seat of fame forever. Perosi is musical director of the famed Cathedral of St. Mark in Venice, and his compositions have made him the ideal of Italy, especially of the Venetian public. He has written a trilogy of oratorios called the "Sacred Trilogy." They are "The Passion of Christ," "The Transfiguration of Jesus Christ" and "The Resurrection of Lazarus." Each oratorio is in two parts, so arranged that the parts may be sung separately. Recorded, the great musical publisher of Italy, has purchased these compositions and has commissioned the composer to write a fourth, to be entitled "The Holy Sepulchre." Perosi's first teacher was his father, Giuseppe Perosi, a choirmaster in Tortona, Piedmont, where Lorenzo was born. He was afterward sent by the patronage of a wealthy Milanese to the conservatory at Milan. He also studied and traveled in Germany. He filled various posts as director in churches until he received his commission at St. Mark's. Although he is but 27 years old, and did so much good work as a musician, he found time to study theology for the priesthood and was ordained in 1893. He has written, besides his grand composition, no less than twelve masses. It is said his re-

Enjoying an Earthquake.

According to the Argonaut, a lady—"an old lady," to quote the Argonaut literally—having returned to Michigan after a visit to California, was asked by one of her neighbors if she had experienced an earthquake. "Yes," said the lady, "we had one, a pretty severe one, and I rather enjoyed it. You see it was the first thing that has happened since John and I were married that he didn't think I was to blame for."

TERRIBLE WORK OF THE STORM

Latest Reports Indicate That 100 Lives Were Lost on the Coast.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 6.—News from the storm-stricken districts along the coast is coming in gradually. It is probable that 100 lives have been lost. News by way of a boat which arrived Wednesday is that fifty people were drowned at Fernandina.

From Campbell Island, inhabited by about forty colored people, it is reported that all but three were drowned. At Brunswick four people lost their lives, and at Jesup, 100 miles from the coast, one man was killed in a building blown down by the storm.

At Sterling Station, Charles Wright, a merchant, reports great loss of life and property in the rice-field portion of Glynn and McIntosh. There are a number of small islands at various points around Brunswick, Fernandina and Darien on which small groups of families live. It will be some days before accurate reports are received from these points. The Morning News' correspondent at Brunswick wires this statement: "Martin Anderson, master of the steamer Hesse, from Darien, Ga., reports that eighty bodies have been found on Butler's island."

AGAINST THE TEMPLE.

Adverse Resolution Adopted by the Illinois W. C. T. U.

Elgin, Ill., Oct. 6.—The department of the temple was dropped at Wednesday's session of the State Women's Christian Temperance union. By a resolution introduced on the report of the executive committee meeting, held Tuesday, the department was discontinued until the midyear executive meeting, which will be held after the national convention in St. Paul in November has taken final action on the question.

A constitutional amendment, of which notice was posted a year ago, raising the annual dues from 50 cents to $1, was introduced by Miss Marie C. Brehm and defeated, after a heated debate, by an overwhelming vote.

A resolution to the effect that the state convention send a memorial to the national convention asking that the constitution be so amended as to admit young men to equal privilege of voting and representation with young women in the Y society was introduced into the executive meeting and defeated.

Eulogized the War Department.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Gen. Wheeler completed his testimony before the war investigating commission Wednesday and was followed by Gen. H. V. Boynton, who was still on the stand when the day's session closed. Gen. Wheeler's statement dealt entirely with the conditions at Camp Wykoff, which he said were as perfect as could be made. Gen. Boynton described in detail the provisions for supplying the Georgia camp with water and told many interesting facts about the location of the troops and the precautions taken to care for and protect them whether sick or well. He said the men wasted more food than the army of the Cumberland consumed during the civil war in the siege of Chattanooga, and he eulogized the supply methods of the war department throughout.

Flat Glass Trust Falters.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—The combination of flat glass tableware manufacturers which was brought into organized form recently after several sessions in this city is said to have gone by the board. Objections were raised after the manufacturers supposed they had an air-tight arrangement, and the application for a charter will not be made at once, as was intended.

Big Sum Left to U. of P.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—At a meeting of the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania it was announced that Col. Joseph M. Bennett, the late merchant and philanthropist, had bequeathed to the institution a number of valuable properties valued at over $400,000 to be devoted to the higher education of women.

Army Corps to Be Reduced.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Orders for the reorganization of the army corps will be issued by the war department today or tomorrow. The number of corps will be reduced from eight to four, and this means a large saving for the war department.

Virginia, Ill., Oct. 6.—The second day's session of the Illinois synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian churches was well attended. The Illinois Church Extension association reported $39,631.74 expended last year, and secured $100 this afternoon for the work this year. Wednesday's session of the annual meeting of the Woman's Synodical Missionary society was conducted by Mrs. H. L. Gillogly.

Democrats Sweep Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—The democrats were elected to state offices by majorities approximating 70,000 votes. The victory demonstrates anew the fact that silver is still the dominant issue in Georgia, as every man on the state ticket was an advocate of the Chicago platform, and had so openly declared throughout the campaigning of the last few months.

Buggies That Live Long.

No one ever saw a buggy that wouldn't wear out sometime, but the Taylor Buggies have as long a life as any rig manufactured. Some people say that a Taylor rig will outwear three ordinary makes.*

People who have used the Taylor rig say they would never ride in any other make. Of course people's opinions differ. Some people who know nothing about Taylor Buggies might say that they would prefer some other make.

A Jamesville gentleman said a few days ago that he had ridden in Taylor rigs for the past six years and would never use any other. They are easy riding, very comfortable and will wear like iron. A good many people have said the same thing about the Taylor Buggies. We know somebody is saying good things about our rigs because we are getting new customers every day.

GOOD FLOUR IS A LUXURY For Rich and Poor.

A Luxury That Can Be Indulged In By All. America's Greatest Family Flour--Washburn-Crosby Co.'s Gold Medal--
Reduced In Price to $1.00 Per Sack.

Gold Medal Flour is true to its name---a medal winner. Has carried off the highest awards at Centennial Exposition, 1876; Miller's Exposition, 1880; World's Fair, 1893; Atlanta Exposition, 1895; and innumerable state and local fairs for the past twenty years. Gold Medal Flour is the culmination of time, money, work and study, and is the highest science of Flour making. The wheat from which it is made is selected and properly aged. It makes white, wholesome bread and the daintiest of pastries. In all our experience of selling Gold Medal it has never failed to please. Never a poor baking with it. There is but one Flour milled so widely known as Gold Medal and only one its equal in quality. It is the best of fancy patents and at $1.00 per sack is remarkably low in price. The time to take advantage of a bargain is while the opportunity is open. We can't tell how long we will continue the $1.00 price. The Flour is worth more money now than that.

FREUN'S WHEAT WAFERS

A New Orleans Girl Honored.
Miss Simon, an attractive New Orleans girl, has had an unusual honor conferred upon her. Not long since Miss Simon went with her parents to Cannes, France. Cannes is noted for its annual flower fete. From all parts of France the women and men assemble and enter into the competition. Princesses, duchesses and marquises vie with the daughters of tradesmen and the peasantry. The recent contest was very close. Many of the most distinguished women in Europe entered their traps. But the crown of honor was awarded to the fair young Louisianian, Miss Simon, the judges being no less personages than the Grand Duke Michael, President Faure and the Grand Duke Nicholas.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"Mrs. Wales and Daughters."
When in the country, the Princess of Wales delights in making little expeditions incognito. An amusing and true story has just leaked out about one of these impromptu excursions at Sandringham. Her royal highness, with the two princesses, had driven a long distance from home in her favorite poney cart, and as lunch drew near they were glad to put up at a picturesque village inn. The landlord had his suspicions as to who his guests were and after lunch had been served brought the visitors' book, whereupon the princess, not to be outdone, made the following entry: "Mrs. Wales and two daughters."

Hat and Bonnet.
A hat should not be worn by those who unmistakably show signs of age. In itself there is something jaunty and aggressively young in a hat, and it requires a good amount of hair to set it off. There appears to be an idea that a bonnet is old foggyish—not at all. They are very smart just now, especially those with jeweled crowns.

Franchise For Irish Women.
The Irish local government bill, as amended in committee, will give the owner, service and lodger franchise to women in Ireland, and will also—read in connection with the orders in council issued under it—assure to them, whether married or unmarried, the right to serve on district councils, both rural and urban, and on boards of guardians, on either the local, electoral or the residential qualifications. This is an important advance. Until the residential qualification was given in England, the number of women guardians remained below 200. It now exceeds 900. The Review of Reviews says of the residential qualification, "It will permit the candidature of many personally highly qualified women who would otherwise be shut out from public administrative work."

Effect of the "Extender."
The woman who affect shirt waists have been affording a puzzle of late to the masculine eye in that they resembled in no small degree a flock of pouter pigeons. The cause is "the shirt waist extender," a device of cotton netting and whalebone, which materially assists the feminine curve. Today a Twenty-third street merchant placed some on view in the window of his shop, whether to attract the feminine eye or to reveal the deception to the masculine could not be determined. Women are certainly growing more complex with every day, testing man's faith to the limit.—New York Letter.

For some skins which cannot stand constant washing, but needing to be cleansed after a walk or ride by other means than soap and water, lait virginal is a delicious preparation and is made as follows: A pint of rose, orange flower or elder flower water, half an ounce of the simple tincture of benzoin and ten drops of the tincture of myrrh.

Ten minutes' calisthenic exercise, followed by a glass of hot (not boiled) milk, to which has been added a teaspoon of lime-water, will relieve sleeplessness caused by fatigue or worry. Both must be taken directly before going to bed.

A SENSE OF PRIDE.
The Colored Lady Had Stood Much, but Collapsed at Last.

The electric fan which had just been put into the dining room was a matter of great interest to the colored attaches of the household. One of them, a stout "auntie," stepped and gasped ostentatiously every time she passed before it. "What de matter, Aunt Hannah?"

asked the boy who was supposed to help around the kitchen and who was her especial aversion. "What makes you keep shyin like a horse?"

She distained to answer, but, chancing to pass the fan again, gave another gasp.

"Is you got de asthma, or is you jes' pantin 'cause it's wahn?"

"Scanny," she responded slowly, "I desires to ax you sumpin. Is you fishin foh trouble? Cuse if you is you wants ter watch your cork. You's got a bite right now."

"No'indeed, I isn' lookin foh no trouble. I was merely 'quirin' afteh your health an comfort. I wanted ter make sho' whether you was a-skyahnt o' dat fan."

"Ma a-skyahnt o' dat!" she exclaimed with great contempt. "Ize humiliated, dat's what I is. An I guess dey is no service places dan dis, so's I won' hatter quit workin when I'ze left."

"Is you gwine away?"

"I is."

"What's your dissatisfaction?"

"Laziness. White folks' laziness. I doesn' speak quality folks to wook hard. But dah'ssech a thing askyahyin luxury an ease too far foh respectability. I doesn' blame 'em foh gettin red o' de cookin an cleanin an passin de dishes at dinner. But when dey gits so dey's got ter set up machinery ter help 'em draw deir bref I tells you, chile, dey's got clean past de limits ob gentility."—Washington Star.

BASEBALL REPORT.

Scores of Yesterday's Games in the National League.

Only two games were played through yesterday, though some were stopped by rain. Pittsburgh clinched its hold on eighth place by downing St. Louis, rescuing the game in the ninth inning. Washington took another from Brooklyn. Scores:

At St. Louis—Washington, 2; Brooklyn, 1.

At New York—Pittsburgh, 8; St. Louis, 6.

Games today: Pittsburgh at Louisville, Cleveland at St. Louis, Baltimore at New York, Washington at Philadelphia, Boston at Brooklyn.

Bank Failure a Bad One.

New York, Oct. 6.—Startling disclosures were made Wednesday when Bank Examiner Kimball continued his investigations of the affairs of the collapsed Tradesmen's National bank. Chief of these was the fact that within a few days of the closing of the Wool Exchange, James MacNaughton, president of the bank, had borrowed $400,000 from the bank, giving as security his stock in the exchange. This stock is now of doubtful value, as the chief asset of the exchange, which was capitalized at $1,000,000, is an equity in the building, which is partly occupied.
